1. MARKET SITUATION AND FUND PERFORMANCE

a. Manager's View on the situation in the markets

Throughout 2023, investor sentiment has shifted from fear of a deep recession to hope for a soft landing for the economy. A pendulum-like sentiment that has been influenced by mini financial crises, geopolitical risks and mac roeconomic data that have insisted on showing a solidity that almost no one has been able to anticipate. This disconnect between the prevailing narrative and the stubborn reality explains much of the volatility in the markets (and portfolio returns).

2023 has been a complicated and volatile, but profitable year. The last quarter was a perfect microcosm of the twelve months just ended. We started the fall with significant market declines, intimidated by central bank statements that better-than-expected growth data and oil above $95 would require contractionary monetary policies for longer. Three months later, we have reaped double-digit rebounds driven by a few benign inflation readings, the 20% drop in crude oil (after a Hamas terrorist attack in Israel) and central bankers who are now relaxed to the point of anticipating rate cuts in the coming quarters.

We are still immersed in a market where uncertainty abounds and conviction is scarce.

An environment in which a good dose of volatility is guaranteed, but which is nevertheless very favorable for our strategy because volatility is not risk, it is synonymous with opportunity.

b. General decisions on investments adopted

The fund's geographic exposure at the end of the second half of 2023 is mostly European, with 6% in liquidity. Sector exposure is as follows: 27% consumer, 14% financials, 31% industrials, 22% TMT and 6% in liquidity.

c. Benchmark index

The benchmark index used, for merely comparative purposes, is the STOXX 600 in euros which had a return of 3.59% in the second half of 2023. In this same period, the fund had a return of 7.16%.

d. Performance of assets, investors, returns and costs of the CII

The NAV per share for Category R of Bestinver Bestinfund as of 31 December 2023 was 748,15 euros, thanks to a return of 21.57% in 2023.

The fund's assets, at the end of the year, stood at 57.04 million euros compared to 54.19 million euros at the end of the first semester.

The annualized Total Expense Ratio (TER) is 2,24% in 2023. 1.12% in the second half on the year.

2. INVESTMENT INFORMATION

The overall computation of our stocks has been offering good returns for the fund for several quarters, but the dispersion among the returns has been very wide. There are companies whose fundamental value is better recognized by the market, which coexist with others that continue to trade at very depressed valuations. We have reduced our presence in the former (Pandora, Stellantis, Inditex, Rolls Royce, Meta, etc.) to increase our weighting in the latter (Shell, BMW, Heineken, Reckitt Benckiser, Ashtead, etc.). With these changes, we continue to maintain the upside potential and have done so, fortunately, by improving the strength of the fund.

The companies that have contributed the most to the fund in the second half of 2023 were: Stellantis, Pandora and Rolls Royce. Conversely, the most negative contributors have been Bayer, Hellofresh and AMS OSRAM.

3. COSTS ARISING FROM THE ANALYSIS SERVICE

The analysis received always refers to securities included within the investment scope of the CISs under management, and its contribution to the investment decision-making process is highly valued by the Investment Management team.

The research cost for 2023 was €25,045.33.

The annual research budget for 2023 is 0.04%.

4. MARKET OUTLOOK AND PROJECTED PERFORMANCE OF FUND

The situation in recent times has been (and continues to be) absolutely exceptional. The prolonged hangover from the events of the last few years, the geopolitical map and the difficult balance of divergent fiscal and monetary policies require us to avoid dogma and to have a good degree of flexibility. The objective? To take advantage of opportunities that may arise in the future. We believe we have a portfolio that fits well with this plan.

Most economic forecasts are just more or less sophisticated extrapolations of the recent past. Projecting small deviations from the current trend represents a reasonably safe bet, since the economy does not usually deviate much from the existing trajectory. The problem is that these estimates are shared by most investors and are therefore reflected in the price of assets in the markets.

The consensus for next year correctly describes the last two months. It extrapolates the current timing of the cycle rather than questioning its durability. We find it interesting to try to identify whether what is happening - the fact that as the transitory factors have faded, inflation has fallen without the need for a recession or a relevant cooling of the labor market - is sustainable. We believe it is, but given the state of the world, assigning a high probability of success to this prediction seems to us to be very risky.

What is true is that the differences between the market consensus and the reality we observe are not as wide as they were last year. In 2023, a large number of investors had prepared for a scenario that did not seem likely to us (and which ultimately did not materialize). There was a major disconnect between the fundamentals of our companies and their share prices, which explains the good returns we have enjoyed over the past year. Can these continue? We do not have a crystal ball, but we can say that the valuation of our portfolio companies is consistent with obtaining what have historically been very good returns for our savings over the medium and long term.

g. Benchmark index

The benchmark index used, for merely comparative purposes, is the MSCI World Net TR EUR, had a return of 6.23% in the second half of 2023. In this same period, the fund had a return of:

- Category R: 3.45% in 2023. 1.71% in the second half of the year.
- Category Z: 2.65% in 2023.1.28% in the second half of the year.

4. INVESTMENT INFORMATION

We have reduced our weighting in companies that have risen in value and which, while still fantastic, are not so cheap: Inditex, Meta, ASMI, Beiersdorf, Amazon, Salesforce and Fuchs.

On the other hand, we have increased our weighting in companies in which we continue to observe an interesting divergence between the price at which they are listed and their fundamental value. This differential can be explained by what we consider to be cyclical rather than structural reasons. This is the case for companies such as Reckitt, Exor, Ashtead, Schindler and Pernod Ricard.

The companies that contributed most to the fund in the second half of 2023 were: Booking, ASML Holding and ASM International. Conversely, the most negative contributors were: Rentokil Initial, Sea LTD and Hellofresh.

5. COSTS ARISING FROM THE ANALYSIS SERVICE

The analysis received always refers to securities included within the investment scope of the CISs under management, and its contribution to the investment decision-making process is highly valued by the Investment Department of the management company.

For Bestinver Great Companies Category R, the research cost for 2023 was €1,213.07.

For Bestinver Great Companies Category Z, the research cost for 2023 was €117.87.

The annual research budget for 2023 is 0.04%.

6. MARKET OUTLOOK AND PROJECTED PERFORMANCE OF FUND

The current situation still calls for a good dose of prudence on our part, but that does not mean that we are not very optimistic when we think about the future. We have a portfolio made up of profitable companies, managed by professionals we admire and whose profits will grow significantly in the coming years. Extraordinary companies that are going to give us a lot of joy as shareholders, not only because of the good operating performance we project for their businesses, but also because of the attractive valuation at which they are trading on the markets.

11. MARKET SITUATION AND FUND PERFORMANCE

m. Manager's View on the situation in the markets

In the final phase of the year, the world's major indices have rallied strongly on the back of global macroeconomic and risk premium easing. The prospects that the worst part of the rate hike cycle is over and the possibility of a soft landing in the economy during 2024 - rather than a severe recession - have led to gains. With regard to emerging markets, the general index posted smaller gains of 3.2%, unable to offset the 8.9% falls in the Chinese stock market despite the extraordinary performance of the Latin American indices.

Latin American stock markets are benefiting from the increasingly evident process of macroeconomic and socio-political normalization that we have echoed in our previous letters. We believe that the mix of lower inflation, rate cuts, structural reforms and fiscal prudence provide the ideal environment for the attractive valuations at which our companies are trading to materialize and give the fund's portfolio a highly asymmetric profile. In our view, this is a region that offers excellent opportunities for investors with sufficiently long time horizons.

In particular, Brazil, the country with the largest presence in our portfolio, is an extraordinarily attractive investment opportunity. Its economy is supported by solid growth fundamentals, controlled inflation expectations and a monetary policy that points to further interest rate cuts.

n. General decisions on investments adopted

At the end of the period, the fund maintains a cash level of 4% and holds 38 companies. These, in our opinion, are the best investment opportunities in the region. Geographically, Brazil represents 60% of the portfolio, followed by LatAm - as we call our group of pan-Latin American companies - with 17% and Mexico with 9%. At the sector level, Consumer and Media & Technology remain the most heavily weighted, with 30% and 27%, respectively.

o. Benchmark index

The benchmark index used for merely comparative purposes is the SP Latin America 40 in euros which had a total return of 9.48% in the second half of 2023. In this same period, the fund earned a return of:

- Category R 3.39%.
- Category Z: 3.73%.
- p. Performance of assets, investors, returns and costs of the CII

The NAV per share in Bestinver Latin America as of 31 December 2023 were as follows:

- Category R: 18.51 euros thanks to a return of 21.92% in 2023.
- Category Z: 10.01 euros thanks to a return of 22.77% in 2023.

The net worth, by category at the close of the second half of the year was as follows:

- Category R: 20.15 million euros compared to 20.05 million euros at the end of the first semester of the year.
- Category Z: 5.07 million euros compared to 4.90 million euros at the end of the first semester of the year.

The annualized Total expense Ratio (TER) to average fund assets was as follows:

- Category R: 2.31% in 2023. 1.18% in the second semester.
- Category Z: 1.65% in 2023. 0.83% in the second semester.

12. INVESTMENT INFORMATION

Among the main movements, we have slightly reduced our weightings in companies such as Femsa and ILC, and increased our holdings in Assaí, Atacadista and Cuervo. We also added the Brazilian company Arezzo to our portfolio during this period, while we sold our entire stake in Hipermarcas.

The companies that have led performance during the second half of 2023 have been: DLOCAL LTD, VTEX and MERCADOLIBRE. Conversely, the worst performers during the period were: CLEAR SALE, GRUPO CASAS BAHIA and LOCAWEB SERVICOS DE INTERNET.

13. COSTS ARISING FROM THE ANALYSIS SERVICE

The analysis received always refers to securities included within the investment scope of the CISs under management, and its contribution to the investment decision-making process is highly valued by the Investment Department of the management company.

For Bestinver Latin America Category R, the research cost for 2023 was €10,274.44.

For Bestinver Latin America Category Z, the research cost for 2022 was €2,254.18.

The annual research budget for 2023 is 0.05%.

14. MARKET OUTLOOK AND PROJECTED PERFORMANCE OF FUND

The regeneration, modernization and legal and institutional strengthening undertaken by Brazil is not an isolated movement. The cases of Mexico, with the nearshoring effect, and Chile, recovering social stability, are additional examples of the structural change that Latin America is undergoing, confirming it as a region full of opportunities. A long-term strategy focused on growth and quality companies in a region as dynamic as Latam has never offered such an attractive profitability profile as it does today.

The Fund's financial statements comprise:

- the combined statement of net assets for the Fund and the statement of net assets for each of the sub-funds as at 31 December 2023;
- the combined statement of operations and changes in net assets for the Fund and the statement of operations and changes in net assets for each of the sub-funds for the year then ended;
- the securities portfolio as at 31 December 2023; and
- the notes to the financial statements, which include a summary of significant accounting policies.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 on the audit profession (Law of 23 July 2016) and with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs) as adopted for Luxembourg by the "Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier" (CSSF). Our responsibilities under the Law of 23 July 2016 and ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF are further described in the "Responsibilities of the "Réviseur d'entreprises agréé" for the audit of the financial statements" section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

We are independent of the Fund in accordance with the International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, including International Independence Standards, issued by the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA Code) as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements. Other information

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information stated in the annual report but does not include the financial statements and our audit report thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Board of Directors of the Fund for the financial statements

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements, and for such internal control as the Board of Directors of the Fund determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for assessing the Fund's and each of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors of the Fund either intends to liquidate the Fund or close any of its sub-funds or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Responsibilities of the "Réviseur d'entreprises agréé" for the audit of the financial statements

The objectives of our audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an audit report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control;
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control;
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors of the Fund;

- conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors of the Fund's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Fund's or any of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our audit report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our audit report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Fund or any of its sub-funds to cease to continue as a going concern;
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
