- all the liabilities of the Fund which are allocated to relevant Sub-Fund in accordance with the provisions of the Articles, and all fees attributable to the relevant Sub-Fund, which fees have been accrued but are unpaid on the relevant Valuation day.

The Net Asset Value per Share shall be calculated in the Reference Currency of the relevant Sub-Fund and shall be calculated by the Administrative Agent as at the Valuation day of the relevant Sub-Fund by dividing the Net Asset Value of the relevant Sub-Fund by the number of Shares which are in issue on such Valuation Day in the relevant Sub-Fund (including Shares in relation to which a Shareholder has requested redemption on such Valuation Day).

If the Sub-Fund has more than one Class in issue, the Administrative Agent shall calculate the Net Asset Value for each Class by dividing the portion of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Sub-Fund attributable to a particular Class by the number of Shares of such Class in the relevant Sub-Fund which are in issue on such Valuation Day (including Shares in relation to which a Shareholder has requested redemption on such Valuation Day).

The Net Asset Value per Share may be rounded up or down to the nearest whole unit of the currency in which the Net Asset Value of the relevant shares are calculated. The Net Asset Value will be calculated up to six decimal places.

Directors' Report

1. MARKET SITUATION AND PERFORMANCE OF THE FUND

a. View of the manager/company of the market situation

2023 has once again been a year of surprises. After witnessing a frenetic pace of interest rate hikes to levels not seen in 15 years, it is not difficult to think that the biggest surprise has been the resilience of economic growth and corporate profits. Despite the slowdown that occurred throughout last year, neither the major economic blocs entered into recession, nor did corporate profits contract sharply, as the market consensus feared at the end of 2022.

In the case of Spain, the delayed recovery from Covid19 and the greater exposure to a service sector stimulated by a record tourist season have placed our country among the strongest economies in 2023. Against all odds, the announced early elections in the middle of the year did not overly distort investor sentiment. With a stock market that already factored in the continuity of controversial policies, an economy with undeniable underlying traction, and valuation levels that allowed for cushioning possible surprises, the elections were navigated without significant alarms.

b. General investment decisions taken

In broad term, the strategy remained unchanged in the second half of the year. We have moderately reduced our weight in banks and energy and increase Iberian small and midcaps where valuation are still abnormally low and lever on the normalization path of inflation and interest rates going forward.

The fund's geographic exposure at the second half of 2023 is 76.37% in Spain, 7.61% in France, 2.77% in others.

c. Reference index

The reference index used for purely comparative purposes was a combination of the IBEX 35 index (90%) and PSI20 (10%) in euros, which in the second half of 2023 achieved a return of 5.6%. The different classes of share achieved the following returns over the same period:

- Class A: 7.14%
- Class I: 7.42%
- Class Z: 7.59%
- Class X: 7.72%

d. Fund assets, net asset values and CIS expenses

The net asset values of the different classes of the fund as of 31 December 2023 were as follows:

- Class A: 18.35 euros thanks to a return of 24.82% in 2023.
- Class I: 23.03 euros thanks to a return of 25.58% in 2023.
- Class Z: 13.50 euros thanks to a return of 25.95% in 2023.
- Class X: 13.72 euros thanks to a return of 26.27% in 2023.

Fund assets at the close, by class, were as follows:

- Class A: 2.5 million euros compared to 2.86 million euros at the end of the first semester of the year.
- Class I: 0.65 million euros compared to 1.94 million euros at the end of the first semester of the year.
- Class Z: 2.15 million euros compared to 1.55 million euros at the end of the first semester of the year.
- Class X: 130.42 million euros compared to 121.07 million euros at the end of the first semester of the year.

The annualized Total expense Ratio (TER) to average fund assets was as follows:

- Class A: 2.08% in 2023. 1.02% in the second semester.
- Class I: 1.56% in 2023. 0.77% in the second semester.
- Class Z: 1.25% in 2023. 0.60% in the second semester.
- Class X: 0.99% in 2023. 0.48% in the second semester.

This ratio includes the management fee, the custodian fee and other current management expenses.

2. INVESTMENT INFORMATION

a. Investments made during the year

As main movements we highlight the purchase of Ferrovial and Colonial and the increase in Sacyr. In the other hand, we have reduced Inditex, Distribuidora Internacional and exited CCEP.

The positions that have contributed most positively in the second half of 2023 were BBVA, BBVA and Zegona. And the largest detractors: DIA, Cellnex and CCEP.

3. RISK ASSUMED BY THE FUND

In 2023, 12-month volatility was 4.29%, calculated with reference to Class A shares, and 6.54% at three years.

4. COSTS ARISING FROM THE RESEARCH SERVICE

The research received always refers to securities included within the investment scope of the CISs under management, and its contribution to the investment decision-making process is highly valued by the Investment Department of the management company.

The research cost for 2023 was:

- Class A: 2,157.61 euros
- Class I: 1,148.86 euros
- Class Z: 1,355.78 euros
- Class X: 93,322.76 euros

The annual budget for the research service for 2023 is 0,07%.

5. MARKET OUTLOOK AND PROJECTED PERFORMANCE OF FUND

Leaving behind the analysis of 2023 and thinking about 2024, anyone can wonder: what now? What can be expected in Iberia after such a good year? In our opinion, the normalization of valuations. The main driver of stock market performance in recent years has unequivocally been the recovery of profits. Therefore, despite the strong price increases, valuations continue to be low. In this context, there are many companies in Iberia that continue to trade in "permanent crisis" mode. The inflationary aftermath of the pandemic, the outbreak of armed conflicts, the energy crisis, or banking scares have not helped in the last 2 years and have forged a context of uncertainty that has prevented markets from recognizing improvements in the fundamentals of many businesses... for now. We do not know what 2024 will bring, but as we gradually reduce the risks of the post-pandemic era, and inflation and interest rates gradually moderate, we should be able to unlock plenty of value accumulated in recent years. Simply put, normalizing valuations.

These processes do not occur in a straight line and are difficult to anticipate with precision. That is why it is not trivial to emphasize the importance of staying invested.

BESTINVER TORDESILLAS SICAV - EUROPEAN FINANCIAL OPPORTUNITIES

a. View of the manager/company of the market situation

Throughout 2023, investor sentiment has shifted from fear of a deep recession to hope for a soft landing for the economy. A pendulum-like sentiment that has been influenced by mini financial crises, geopolitical risks and macroeconomic data that have insisted on showing a solidity that almost no one has been able to anticipate. This disconnect between the prevailing narrative and the stubborn reality explains much of the volatility in the markets (and portfolio returns).

2023 has been a complicated and volatile, but profitable year. The last quarter was a perfect microcosm of the twelve months just ended. We started the fall with significant market declines, intimidated by central bank statements that better-than-expected growth data and oil above $95 would require contractionary monetary policies for longer. Three months later, we have reaped double-digit rebounds driven by a few benign inflation readings, the 20% drop in crude oil (after a Hamas terrorist attack in Israel) and central bankers who are now relaxed to the point of anticipating rate cuts in the coming quarters.

We are still immersed in a market where uncertainty abounds and conviction is scarce.

An environment in which a good dose of volatility is guaranteed, but which is nevertheless very favorable for our strategy because volatility is not risk, it is synonymous with opportunity.

b. General investment decisions taken

During the year we increased significantly the exposure to the banking sector that has been a net beneficiary of higher rates, especially relative to other sectors in the market.

- b. General investment decisions taken (continued)

In the last part of the year we increased the exposure to diversified financials and banks that may benefit from lower inflation rates and lower rates. It is a mainly financial and European fund.

- c. Reference index

The reference index used for purely comparative purposes was a combination of 50% Stoxx 600 Banks PR EUR SX7P, 25% Stoxx 600 Insurance PR EUR SXIP and 25% Stoxx 600 Financial Services SXFP, which in the second half of 2023 achieved a rate of return of 11.04%. The different classes of shares in the fund achieved the following returns:

- Class A: 5.68%
- Class Z: 6.05%

- d. Net worth, net asset values and CIS expenses

The NAV per share in the fund as of 31 December 2023 were as follows:

- Class A: 12.08 euros thanks to a return of 13.91% in 2023.
- Class Z: 13.1 euros thanks to a return of 14.77% in 2023.

The net worth, by class at the close of the year was as follows:

- Class A: 0.65 million euros compared to 0,66 at the end of the first semester of the year
- Class Z: 4.33 million euros compared to 4.08 at the end of the first semester of the year

The annualized Total expense Ratio (TER) to average fund assets was as follows:

- Class A: 2.95% in 2023. 1,52% in the second semester.
- Class Z: 2.17% in 2023. 1,13% in the second semester.

This ratio includes the management fee, the custodian fee and other current management expenses.

2. INVESTMENT INFORMATION

- a. Investments made during the year:

ABN Amro, Barclays, Citigroup, Amundi and Euronext.

The instruments that contributed the most to the fund in the second half of the year were: BANCO SANTANDER, ERSTE GROUP BANK and DANSKE BANK.

Conversely, the most negative contributors were PRUDENTIAL, ASR NEDERLAND and APPLE.

3. RISK ASSUMED BY THE FUND

The risk assumed by the fund, measured by the volatility of the net asset value, is greater than the volatility of treasury bonds and of the IBEX 35 because we invest in assets from which we expect to achieve a higher rate of return and therefore a greater variation in their prices. Volatility is the deviation of the price from the mean value. The greater the volatility, the greater the risk.

4. COSTS ARISING FROM THE RESEARCH SERVICE

The fund pays costs arising from the research service provided by various suppliers, which amounted to 410.86 euros for class A and 2,871.85 euros for class Z in the year. The research received always refers to securities included within the investment scope of the CISs under management, and its contribution to the investment decision-making process is highly valued by the Investment Department of the management company.

The annual budget for the research service for 2023 is 0,05%.

BESTINVER TORDESILLAS SICAV - VITALIS GLOBAL ALLOCATION

a. View of the manager/company of the market situation

In 2023, asset returns were for the most part positive, due to a combination of stronger than expected economic growth (mostly in the United States) and rapid disinflation, which helped to stabilize interest rates.

Equities were the best performing asset class. The MSCI ACWI index rose 20.1% in the year in dollar terms, which contrasted sharply with the 18% contraction during 2022. By geography, the best performing markets were the United States and Japan, while in the emerging markets space, the best performers included Mexico, Brazil and Poland.

In sector terms, information technology and communications led, while consumer discretionary and industrials also performed well. Losses were concentrated in the energy, utilities and consumer staples sector indexes.

The main drivers of the strong performance of equity markets were:

- Better than expected earnings throughout the year, driven by stronger economic growth and the low base of comparison provided by 2022, when many companies saw lower earnings due to inventory corrections and impairment charges on pandemic-era investments.
- Lower implied and realized volatility, mainly due to better visibility on forward interest rates.
- The stabilization of interest rates, especially mid- and long-term rates, after central banks stopped hiking their reference rates in the middle part of the year.
- Geopolitics remained volatile, but it did not cause commodity price shocks such as those seen in 2022.
- Optimism related to the development of artificial intelligence tools and the possibility of a large, sustained positive impact on economic productivity.

As mentioned previously, interest rates reached levels not seen for nearly twenty years as a response to the inflation shocks of 2021-2022 throughout the world. However, as inflation started to subside, mainly due to the unwinding of supply-chain issues and lower commodity prices, central banks stopped their hiking cycle and, in some cases, spelled out the conditions under which they would start lowering rates.

Rates volatility was high throughout 2023, caused by events such as the failure of some regional banks in the United States, the uncertainty caused by the possible government shutdown in that country and the fluctuations in the amount of coupon bond issuance. Nonetheless, in rough terms, rates ended the year at a similar level to 2022.

It is also worth mentioning that in Latin America, rates rose earlier and higher than in other parts of the world. As inflation moderated, some central banks in that region began cutting rates.

The combination of high rates compared to the previous decade and the stabilization of longer-term rates allowed the Bloomberg Aggregate Bond index to post a 5.7% gain in 2023, which was a notable improvement compared to the 16.2% fall in 2022.

Another factor that contributed to this performance was the compression in credit spreads, which ended the year below their long-term average, helped by the positive economic environment.

b. General investment decisions taken

Overall asset class allocation was unchanged, as per the funds policies. However, within each asset class there were significant changes, as will be detailed below.

The fixed income portion of the portfolio changed substantially on three main lines:

- Duration was raised from 3.5 years at the beginning of the year to 4.6 years at year's end. This level is still lower than well-known fixed income benchmarks and has been kept that way because term premiums in the longer end of the dollar curve remain depressed.
- As the economic picture improved throughout the year, exposure was raised in spread-sensitive sectors such as investment-grade corporate bonds, high-yield corporates and emerging markets, from one fifth of the total to 40% by the end of 2023.
- Exposure to inflation-linked bonds was reduced significantly, from nearly 80% at the end of 2022 to half that level by the end of 2023. This was the result both of falling real yields and the disinflation process observed during the year.

As a result of these strategies, the return on fixed income investment was in line with the broad global aggregates in USD terms and higher than U.S. Treasury indexes.

The equity portion of the portfolio did not experience significant changes during the year, although some relevant adjustments are noted below:

- While the portion of the equity portfolio devoted to U.S. equities remained mostly constant, at certain times of the year it included a component linked to the S&P 500 equal weight index.
- The portion of the portfolio devoted emerging market equities did rise slightly throughout the year.

Performance of the equity portion was broadly in line with global indexes.

2. INVESTMENT INFORMATION

In 2023, the fund provided a return of 10.8% in U.S. dollars. This was mainly driven the results in the equity portion of the portfolio, although the fixed-income component also provided a positive contribution to the result.

Equity gains were mostly due to rising U.S. stocks. The MSCI United States index rose 24.2%, compared to the gain of 20% in the MSCI All Countries World Index (ACWI), with the large IT sector in the U.S. driving the outperformance.

Notwithstanding, other developed market indexes such as the MSCI Europe and MSCI Japan indexes also posted strong performances, rising more than 15% in 2023. Emerging markets provided a more mixed picture, with strong gains in some markets, but the overall MSCI Emerging market index rose just 7% in the year.

The upward trend was thus broadly based and can be mostly attributed to better-than-expected economic performance (which in absolute terms was quite mixed), which in turn led to rising corporate profits.

Regarding fixed income, results were positive, in contrast to the 2021-2022 period. Although mid to long term bonds saw rates fluctuated, they ended close to levels seen at the beginning of the year. Thus, performance was mostly driven by high short-term rates and credit spreads that tightened throughout the year, which reflected the generally benign economic conditions.

In general terms, duration was kept below neutral, reflecting concerns about the value provided by long-term bonds given flat to negative term premiums.

3. MARKET OUTLOOK AND FUND'S PLANNED APPROACH

We expect that in 2024, returns will be roughly similar to those seen in 2023 across most asset classes. The following points describe our general outlook for the year:

- Economic conditions will be positive as no major sector disequilibrium have been detected, government spending remains on an upward trajectory, and the main central banks are expected to begin cutting rates towards the second semester as inflation keeps falling, albeit more slowly than in 2023.
- Corporate profits are expected to post strong gains in most sectors.
- The geopolitical situation remains complex, but absent new shocks, the impact of ongoing crises is expected to remain contained.

Nonetheless, there are non-trivial risks on the horizon:

- While the economic panorama is generally positive, there are sectors that do show significant stress, such as commercial real estate and some sectors of the banking system in the U.S. (both are necessarily related). It is possible that losses on real estate loans grow and have a negative impact on the solvency of some financial institutions.
- Strong consumer spending due to low unemployment and rising wages may, at some point in the year, lead to higher inflation. In turn, this would pressure central banks to at least cancel interest rate cuts and to even raise them. As this is not priced into the markets, it would probably lead to significant price declines in stocks and bonds.
- There are many elections this year, with the presidential contest in the United States being the most notable one. If more radical options win, or results are disputed, this might lead to a significant reassessment of risk premiums in some sectors.
- The optimism regarding artificial intelligence might lead to excessive valuations in related stocks and even in the market overall, much as the dot com mania did in the late 1990's. If this happens, there may be a large correction in equity markets, which in turn may affect the overall economy both through the fixed investment channel and negative wealth effects.
- As mentioned above, current geopolitical crises might broaden and new ones arise, leading to rising commodity prices and inflation.

Given these conditions, in fixed income we will remain cautious, maintaining moderate duration levels and a significant portion of the portfolio in inflation-indexed securities, while keeping an eye on economic conditions to modulate the exposure to credit-sensitive sectors. If central banks do cut rates or the economic picture changes significantly, we will reevaluate these guidelines.

Concerning equities, we remain broadly positive. We expect gains to broaden, as they have been concentrated in IT-related sectors, in which case we might seek to gain exposure to a wider variety of markets and factors.

Finally, it is possible that we might take tactical positions in alternative asset classes, such as gold, commodities, and real estate, for example.

BESTINVER TORDESILLAS SICAV - MEGATRENDS

a. View of the manager/company of the market situation

At the end of the year, the process of economic normalization that began after the pandemic has continued. Despite the fact that 2023 was a year of many doubts, the world's main stock market indexes have managed to overcome the difficulties and achieve double-digit returns. The moderation of inflation, the recovery of interest rates as a monetary tool, the expansive fiscal policy and the extraordinarily healthy balance sheets of the private sector lay the foundations for the continued crystallization of the long-term value of our companies.

b. General investment decisions taken

The fund's geographic exposure at the end of the second half of 2023 is 45% United States, 42.4% Europe and 7% Rest of the World. The distribution by Megatrend at the close of 2023 is: 41% Digitalization and Automation, 30% Decarbonization of the economy, 23.4% Improving quality of life and 5.6% in liquidity.

c. Reference index

The benchmark index used for purely comparative purposes is the MSCI World Net TR EUR which earned a return of 6.23% in the second half of 2023. In this same period, The fund earned a return of 2.22%.

d. Performance of fund assets, return and CIS expenses

The NAV per share of the fund at the end of 2023 was 12.23 euros, thanks to a cumulative return of 15.59%.

Fund assets stood at 7.8 million euros at the end of the second semester compared to 7.5 million euros at the end of the first semester of the year.

The annualized Total Expense Ratio (TER) is 1,92% in 2023. 0.98% in the second half.

This ratio includes the management fee, the custodian fee and other current management expenses.

2. INVESTMENT INFORMATION

a. Investments made during the period

Improved prospects in the renewable energy sector have led us to recently initiate a position in SSE. SSE is one of the largest electricity companies in the UK and Ireland. It seems to us to be a company that offers a very attractive balance between a defensive business with high visibility and a less stable business with high earnings growth potential. At current prices, the UK company trades at 11 times its estimated 2025 earnings. This valuation, in our opinion, does not reflect the true value of its assets and the good strategic opportunity that the company has before it.

The positions that have contributed most positively in the second half of 2023 have been Vestas, Grifols and Micron Technology. Conversely, the worst performing positions in the year were: AIA GROUP, BAUSCH + LOMB and BAXTER INTERNATIONAL.

5. MARKET OUTLOOK AND FUND'S PLANNED APPROACH

The fund invests in companies well positioned to benefit from three megatrends that will determine the development of our lifestyle over the coming decades: the improvement of people's quality of life, the digitalization and automation of companies and the decarbonization of the economy. These are three economic and social trends that are not standing still, thanks to structural growth, visibility and institutional momentum that impose a strong rooting and integration in our societies.

The fund uses the study of these trends to invest in companies that have the capacity to offer differentiated solutions to the major challenges facing the planet, such as climate change, population aging and the transition to a digitalized economy.

Beyond the unpredictability of a particular quarter, the companies exposed to the megatrends in which we invest have the potential for growth and profitability above the market average over the long term. They benefit from a strong structural tailwind that will continue to offer good long-term investment opportunities for our portfolio.

Responsibilities of the Board of Directors of the Fund for the financial statements

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements, and for such internal control as the Board of Directors of the Fund determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for assessing the Fund's and each of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors of the Fund either intends to liquidate the Fund or close any of its sub-funds or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Responsibilities of the “Réviseur d’entreprises agréé” for the audit of the financial statements

The objectives of our audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an audit report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control;
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control;
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors of the Fund;

- conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors of the Fund's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Fund's or any of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our audit report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our audit report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Fund or any of its sub-funds to cease to continue as a going concern;
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

If the security or money market instrument is traded on several markets, it is valued on the basis of the last known price on the main market of this security. If the last known price is not representative, valuation will be based on the fair value at which it is expected it can be sold, as determined with it is prudence and in good faith by the Board of Directors.

Unlisted securities, securities or money market instruments not traded on a stock exchange or any other regulated market, as well as listed securities and securities or money market instruments listed on a regulated market for which no price is available, or securities or money market instruments whose quoted price is, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, not representative of their actual market value, are valued at their last known price in Luxembourg or, on the absence of such price, on the basis of their probable realisation value, as determined with prudence and in good faith by the Board of Directors.

Liquid assets and money market instruments are valued at their nominal value plus accrued interest, or minus any amortised costs.

Did this financial product have a sustainable investment objective?

Yes

No

It made sustainable investments with an environmental objective: ___% in economic activities that qualify as environmentally sustainable under the EU Taxonomy in economic activities that do not qualify as environmentally sustainable under the EU Taxonomy

It made sustainable investments with a social objective: ___%

It promoted Environmental/Social (E/S) characteristics and while it did not have as its objective a sustainable investment, it had a proportion of ___% of sustainable investments with an environmental objective in economic activities that qualify as environmentally sustainable under the EU Taxonomy with an environmental objective in economic activities that do not qualify as environmentally sustainable under the EU Taxonomy with a social objective

It promoted E/S characteristics, but did not make any sustainable investments

Sustainable investment means an investment in an economic activity that contributes to an environmental or social objective, provided that the investment does not significantly harm any environmental or social objective and that the investee companies follow good governance practices.

The EU Taxonomy is a classification system laid down in Regulation (EU) 2020/852, establishing a list of environmentally sustainable economic activities. That Regulation does not lay down a list of socially sustainable economic activities. Sustainable investments with an environmental objective might be aligned with the Taxonomy or not.

To what extent were the environmental and/or social characteristics promoted by this financial product met?

The Sub-Fund promoted environmental and social characteristics by promoting climate change mitigation and adaptation characteristics among the investee companies.

The Sub-Fund did this in three ways:

1. Part of the portfolio is invested in the Decarbonisation of the economy theme, so we invested in companies that their activities provide solutions for climate change mitigation and/or adaptation. For example, companies involved in renewable energies and electrification of the economy.

Sustainability indicators measure how the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product are attained.

2. Furthermore, for the rest of the companies whose activities do not directly provide solutions for climate change mitigation and/or adaptation, the Sub-Fund expects them to embed climate change in their strategy and operations. Thus, the Sub-Fund expects companies to implement plans to align their businesses to the objectives of the Paris agreement and to effectively manage climate transition risks. The Sub-Fund also promotes that companies provide transparent and reliable information about their climate footprint and progress towards the climate targets they have set. As a matter of fact, these issues are the pillars of the Sub-Fund's internal ESG rating targets regarding the internal environmental score.
3. Finally, the Sub-Fund applied specific exclusion criteria to avoid investment in companies that have substantial involvement in activities that are considered to be detrimental to climate change mitigation and adaptation.

● How did the sustainability indicators perform?

Please see below what sustainability indicators we used and the performance.

In order to measure the attainment of the promotion of climate change mitigation and/or adaptation, the fund uses the following indicators:

1. For the companies that are invested through the Sub-Fund decarbonisation of the economy theme, we require that at least 30% of the revenues are related to solutions for climate change mitigation and/or adaptation. In order to measure this involvement, the Sub-Fund uses the RBICS (Revere Business Industry Classification system) and maps the subindustries that carry out these activities, matching them with the activities carried out by the invested companies.

Percentage of the fund invested in the decarbonization theme: 24.50%

2. For the whole portfolio, even for the companies whose activities do not directly provide a solution for climate change mitigation and/or adaptation, the Sub-Fund expects them to embed climate change in their strategy and operations. Thus, the Sub-Fund expects companies to implement plans to align their businesses to the objectives of the Paris agreement and to effectively manage climate transition risks. The Sub-Fund also promotes that companies provide transparent and reliable information about their climate footprint and progress towards the climate targets they have set. In order to assess the alignment of the companies with the Paris agreement and the level of transparency regarding climate change related information, the Sub-Fund uses the following indicators:

- a. Whether company's climate targets are set according to the Science Based targets initiative (<https://sciencebasedtargets.org/>)

62.67% of the fund is made up of companies that have committed to or have set climate goals in accordance with the SBT Initiative.

- b. Whether the company provides information to CDP and what score has CDP assigned to their climate change policies (www.cdp.net)

71.54% of the fund is made up of companies that have provided information to CDP Whether the company follows the recommendations of the Task Force for Climate Related Financial Disclosures (www.fsb-tcfd.org)

72.45% of the fund is made up of companies that follow the TCFD recommendations.
